First Filing with new information / NEW file / CHANGES on any line / EXPIRED file.

By California State law you must file and publish your Fictitious Business Name Statement within 40 days after you begin your business. It is good for 5 years. If you change any of the business facts on the statement (like change of address) your statement automatically expires and you must file and publish within 40 days.

Renewal Filing - NO CHANGES on any line since 5 years ago.

By state law it's time to renew your Fictitious Business Name Statement for 5 more years in LA County!
 Congratulations! Your business name is five years more valuable.

Most successful people all over LA County don't remember to refile their business names on time. Five years go by fast. We remembered for you. We watched out for you and reminded you on time so your business name statement will not stop (expire); but you must sign the form and return with proper payment so we can refile/ file / publish for you right away.

It will be an honor for us to serve you. LEGAL DESK™ AAD NEWS

Common mistakes on Renewal Filings:

- Corporations or Limited Liability Companies (LLC) forget to send a copy of filed Articles of Incorporation or Organization with the signed form and two checks. LA County Clerk requests a copy of the articles to verify that a corporation or LLC is registered.
- Add $4. to the LA Clerk check for each extra business name printed in 2-2, 2-3 etc. and add $4 to the LA Clerk check for each extra registrant after 4A printed in 4B, 4C etc. (husband and wife pay $23. three partners pay $27.; four partners pay $31. etc)
- People aren't sure who should sign the Renewal Filing form. How you mark line 5 tells you who must sign your form. Think of "who owns the business"; it may help you choose the correct line to mark below:
